

Art around the galleries

Jazmina Cininas'
Arline of Barioux,
Auvergne 1588.

WHAT Pressing Matters — contemporary printmaking

WHERE Jenny Port Gallery, Level 1,
7 Albert Street, Richmond. Phone
9429 6006

WHAT Winter Collectors' Exhibition
2008

WHERE John Buckley Gallery,
8 Albert Street, Richmond. Phone
9428 8554

These two galleries in Albert Street have opted for group shows. Jenny Port Gallery has a strong array of works on paper, most notably a wry and amusing sequence by Gary James (aka Spook) titled Rake's Progress and some wonderful prints by Jazmina Cininas that recall medieval manuscripts. Opposite, the John Buckley Gallery features an eclectic mix of stockroom works including a strong Howard Arkley Zappo Head, works by John Beard, John Firth-Smith, John Olsen, David Stephenson and a disturbing triptych by Bill Henson. Both shows finish today.

ASHLEY CRAWFORD